

IT SECURITY AWARENESS

Program Overview

This course is a complete foundational security awareness training program that covers a wide array of topics for nearly every type of end-user and learner level. The content is designed to educate employees on proper cyber and data security behavior.

Topics Covered

Introduction to Information security

- What is Information Security
- Compliance requirements from regulatory bodies
- Data protection
- Clean Desk policy
- Corporate Security Policy
- Protect your company data

On-line security threats

- What information to be protected
- Virus and worms
- Social Engineering
- Phishing
- Acceptable User policy and Ethics
- Password Management
- Protecting Mobile Data

IT Security Incidents

- What is security Incident
- Actions taken in case of incident
- How to report an incident
- Security measures

Information Protection

- Information storage
- Information distribution
- Information disposal.
- Confidentiality, integrity, and availability of In

Social Media

- Use of social media platform in corporate
- Advantages and disadvantages of Social media in corporate Environments

Target Audience:

IT Administrators/Professionals and end users

Duration: 2 HRS